

Courage

Goliath came toward David, walking behind the soldier who was carrying his shield. When Goliath saw that David was just a healthy, good-looking boy, he made fun of him. "Do you think I'm a dog?" Goliath asked. "Is that why you've come after me with a stick?" He cursed David in the name of the Philistine gods and shouted, "Come on! When I'm finished with you, I'll feed you to the birds and wild animals!"

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

“Have courage. Go forward. Make some noise! Wherever there are young people there must be noise. Things can be toned down later on, but a young person always wants to make noise. Go forward. There will be people who will say things to you to slow you down, to block your path. Please, go against the current. Be courageous...go against the current, against this civilisation that is doing us so much harm. Be courageous...go against the current: and this means making noise. Be courageous...go forward, remaining true to the values of beauty, goodness and truth.”
