Dear Parents

Newsletter No. 28 – 28 April 2017

All Hallows Ball

Thank you to all those who have purchased tickets for Saturday night's Spring Ball. This year the Ball will raise funds for the Science Department. A huge thank you to Mrs Naylor and Mrs Caunce for their many hours of hard work in organising the Ball which we are sure will be a great success.

London Marathon

Mr McMullen would like to say a very big 'thank you' to the many people who sponsored him in the recent London Marathon. We will announce the final total he has raised for Galloway's Society for the Blind over the coming weeks. He is confident that the final total will be close to £1,000 so many thanks!

PTFA 200 Club

The April winners are First Prize £40 No.50 A Morris, Second Prize £20 No.106 M Varey and Third Prize £10 No.2 D Finch.

Collective Worship

Our Collective Worship theme next week is FRIENDSHIP. Please see the Worship & Prayer section of the school website for next week's prayer sheet.

Synod of Bishops

In 2018 the General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops will meet in Rome to cover the theme "Young People, the Faith, and Vocational Discernment". Pope Francis has invited the youth of the world to add their voices to the consultation process which precedes the meeting. Therefore, pupils in Year 9 and above will have the chance in the coming weeks to respond to a questionnaire compiled by the Catholic Bishops of England and Wales, designed to gather their thoughts about life as a young person, and what the Church can do for young people. This is a significant moment for youth ministry in the Church and we look forward to leading our young people through it in the coming weeks and months.
