Dear Parents

Newsletter No. 1 – 8 September 2017

Welcome back to everyone to School Year 2017/2018. Congratulations to last year's Year 11 who performed superbly in the GCSE's. Results day was generally a very happy time and the vast majority of the year group have moved forward in their lives to a place of their choice. We look forward to welcoming them back in November, when we celebrate their achievements and congratulate them on their contribution to All Hallows.

As the new school year begins we welcome new colleagues and other colleagues who have taken on different roles in the school.

The changes include the following:

Head of History – Mr Wallbanks

Head of Modern Foreign Languages – Mr Hennigan,

Head of Technology – Mr Jousiffe

Second in English – Mrs Cairns

Second in Modern Foreign Languages – Mrs Swayne

Teacher of Computing – Mr Carr

Teacher of English – Miss Raine

Teacher of Modern Foreign Languages – Mrs Pardon-Gallagher

Teacher of Performing Arts – Mrs Posner

Head of Year 8 – Mrs Hodgson

Head of Year 11 – Mr Locke

As you can see there are quite a number of changes to the teaching staff and we also welcome Miss Burrow and Miss Seed who will be working with the pupils in different areas during the course of the school year.

We welcome all our new colleagues and hope that they will have a very happy and successful time with us.

PTFA

I have sent a separate letter out to parents about our PTFA. The Annual General Meeting of the PTFA takes place on Tuesday 12 September 2017 at 6.30 p.m. in the Headteacher's Office. We would welcome any input from parents who are interested in helping us in this important work that is done in school
