'Growing Together in the Spirit of Christ's Love'

This is our school mission statement.
How does this mission statement link with our theme for the week?

COMMUNITY WE ARE ONE BODY

Word of the Week: 1 Corinthians 12: 14-26

The body does not consist of one member but of many parts. If the foot should say, 'Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body', that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear should say, 'Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body', that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? But as it is, God arranged the organs in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single organ, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I have no need of you', nor again the head to the feet, 'I have no need of you.'...

God has so composed the body...that there may be no discord in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together.

Let us

pray...

Today I will remember that what I do has an effect on the atmosphere in my school.

Today I will remember that we are all part of the Earth and responsible for its well-being.

Today I will remember that: 'Nobody is an island, separated from others; everybody is a piece of the continent, a part of the whole.'

Amen

EVERYBODY, SOMEBODY, ANYBODY NOBODY.

There is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realised that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

How does this link to our theme and the WORD OF THE WEEK?

Our WORD OF THE WEEK explains to us how we each have a job to do. We are all unique and all have different jobs. We have been created in this unique way by God because he wants us to play our part in the world, and in making the world the best place it can be. By creating us all differently we all have different gifts and talents that make us who we are and lead us to knowing what our role in the world is. This is not something we think about for the future, this is something that we need to be doing now, as Pope Francis puts it, "You are the NOW of God."

What are your gifts and talents?

How can your gifts and talents make a positive difference to the people and the world around you?

What are you going to do today to play your part?

Our WORD OF THE WEEK also explains beautifully that none of the parts are any better or any worse than any other. They are all equal and all have a job to do.

Do you believe that your gifts and talents are equal to the gifts and talents of others?

Or do you sometimes wish that you were good at certain things that others are good at?

Do you look down on others because they have different gifts and talents to you that you think are less important?

Its very easy to compare our selves to others but this week we are encouraged to see ourself for who we truly are, created by God uniquely and equally, with a definite purpose.

Blessed John Henry Newman

God knows me and calls me by my name...

God has created me to do Him some definite service;

He has committed some work to me

which He has not committed to another.

I have my mission!

Somehow I am necessary for His purposes...

I have a part in this great work;

I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.

He has not created me for nothing.

I shall do good, I shall do His work.

JOHN HENRY NEWMAN WAS A POET AND THEOLOGIAN (STUDIED GOD), HE BECAME A CATHOLIC PRIEST AND THEN A CARDINAL. THIS YEAR IN OCTOBER HE WILL BECOME A SAINT! AN ENGLISH SAINT! COULD YOU BE THE NEXT ENGLISH SAINT?
