REMEMBRANCE

WORD OF THE WEEK

ECCLESIAASTES 3: 1-8

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:

A time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

LEAD US FROM DEATH TO LIFE
FROM FALSEHOOD TO TRUTH
FROM FEAR TO TRUST
LEAD US FROM HATE TO LOVE AND FROM WAR TO PEACE.
LET PEACE FILL OUR HEARTS,
OUR WORLD, OUR UNIVERSE.
AMEN

HEAD OVER TO THE STAFF SHARED AREA FOR VIDEOS TO HELP WITH YOUR REFLECTIONS THIS WEEK.

Something to think about...

It's hard for us to imagine the full horror of what so many have been through in war but it is vital that we try, for only then can we appreciate all we owe to the millions we remember this week, and so understand the importance of maintaining peace for future generations.

In the silence of your hearts, think and pray about what you can do today to promote peace.

I'd rather have Peace on Earth than pieces of earth.

11th November- Remembrance Day

The eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month was the official ending of the First World War. Remembrance Sunday is always the Sunday nearest to the 11th November.

On this day, and on the 11th of November itself, poppies are worn and wreaths of poppies are laid at memorials, as a reminder of the fields of poppies in northern France where many soldiers were killed in the First World War.

On this day we keep two minutes silence out of respect for the dead of the two world wars as well as more recent conflicts.

A time for silence

Take sometime this morning to be silent and reflect on these words about peace.

BLESSED ARE THE
peacemakers:
FOR THEY SHALL BE CALLED THE children of God.
Matthew 5:9

John Lennon

IF EVERYONE DEMANDED
PEACE INSTEAD OF
ANOTHER TELEVISION SET,
THEN THERE'D BE PEACE.

JOHN LENNON

You must be the change
you wish to see in the world.

Peace cannot be kept by force; it can only be achieved by understanding.
