

THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

*"To live by faith means to put our lives in the hands of God.
Especially in the most difficult of moments."*

Pope Francis

THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Praying the Stations of the Cross—alone or with a group—is a Lenten tradition. As you read and pray these stations imagine the scene in Jerusalem as Jesus walked his Way of the Cross.

Often, the Stations of the Cross is an action prayer. Catholics walk to the fourteen stations of the Way of the Cross and stop to pray at each one. These stations can be displayed outside around your garden or around your home so you can journey to each station to pray.

You could pray them all on a Friday, as many Catholics do or spread them out over a few days.

During Holy Week you could pray 2 each day together (Monday 6th April- Friday 10 April).

But don't forget, as sad as this story might be,
this is not the end.

We are the lucky disciples who go through Lent full of hope, remembering the end of this truly incredible story that comes on Easter Sunday!

First Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS CONDEMNED TO DIE

First Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS CONDEMNED TO DIE

There you stand before the crowd after being beaten. You never deny yourself, yet humbly accept the punishment given to you by those who had witnessed your miracles. It's easy to look at this scene now and think, 'How could they have accused you and condemned you to death? All you did was love every person you met.' Yet they are not alone in their condemnation of you.

Pause

How often do I ignore you at school in the person no one wants to talk to? How often do my words condemn you in the way that I speak about others? It was not only the Jews and Pontius Pilate who condemned you, but I stand next to them shouting just as loud, 'Crucify Him!'

Pause

Jesus, forgive me for the ways in which I condemn and pierce others with my words and actions. Help me to love like you and to learn from your example.

Second Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS TAKES HIS CROSS

Second Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS TAKES HIS CROSS

By now you have endured a sleepless night, betrayal by your friends, and a beating that is too horrible to fully imagine. You've been whipped and spit on by countless faces, some of whom last week treated you as royalty as you entered the city. And now, they hand you a cross to carry. The weight is unbearable. In carrying the cross, you carry the weight of our sins.

Pause

How often do I forget that you have carried the load for me? How often do I try to carry things on my own, not allowing you to help me? It was not only the sins of the world that you carried; it was my sin, my selfishness, my pride, my anger. Each added more weight to the load. And it was not only my sin you carried but also my burdens, my worries, my fears, my sadness, my insecurities. Each you carried step by step up towards Golgotha, the place of the Skull.

Pause

Jesus, help me not to forget the load that you carried for me. Give me the strength and the courage to let go of those things that separate me from you.

Third Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS FALLS THE FIRST TIME

Third Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS FALLS THE FIRST TIME

As you walk through the narrow streets, every movement, every jolt burns and reopens your wounds. The pain along with the weight of the cross becomes too much and you fall. In boxing, when a fighter falls and is too beaten to continue, the fight is stopped by the referee. Yet, there is no one there to stop the battle that you fight for us. Even though you know what still lies ahead, you do not stop and somehow find the strength to continue.

Pause

How many times have I fallen in my work, in other words how many times have I got things wrong? Too many to count, I'm sure. Sometimes when I fall I don't feel like getting back up and trying again. There are also too many temptations that I am faced with that feel too fun and easy to do because so many around me are doing them, even though they aren't always the right thing to do.

Pause

Jesus, help me to remember your courage and perseverance when you fell. Give me the courage to get back up when I fall. Help me remember that it is worth it to live as you lived.

Fourth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS MEETS HIS MOTHER

Fourth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS MEETS HIS MOTHER

Amid all the shouts and jeers from the crowd that move like a wave in your mind as you struggle to remain conscious, one voice stands out. At first it is so faint that you wonder if it is real, but then as your eyes meet and you see her face you are not surprised that she is there for you. She has always been there for you. Her 'Yes' to the Father has been a light in the darkness. And now, here in your darkest hour, she is there.

Pause

There are so many times when I feel alone in my struggles. It seems that no one understands what I am going through, especially my parents; but I realize they must. How many times have I hidden things from my parents out of fear of what they would say, or what trouble I would be in when all they want is to love me?

Pause

Jesus, help me to remember that I am never alone in my struggles.
Help me to see my parents as you saw yours.
Help me know their love for me and when things are hard between us, help me to remember the light of your Mother in my life.

Fifth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

SIMON HELPS JESUS CARRY HIS CROSS

Fifth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

SIMON HELPS JESUS CARRY HIS CROSS

The soldiers who had beaten you all day had what appears to be a moment of compassion. Yet instead, their selfish motives override their opportunity for charity. They only want to follow their orders to get you up to the place where you will be crucified. You look so beaten that they decide to grab Simon a Cyrenian out of the crowd to help you carry the cross. He follows behind you, walking in your steps, helping you move forward. You press on, knowing that the worst is yet to come.

Pause

How often do I pass up an opportunity to help someone in need?
Do I let what others may think of me stop me from reaching out?

Pause

Jesus, open my ears to hear the ways that you call me to serve. Help me follow Simon's example of helping others. Help me to know what it means to be a true and faithful servant.

Sixth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

VERONICA WIPES THE FACE OF JESUS

Sixth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

VERONICA WIPES THE FACE OF JESUS

By now the thorns cut so deeply into your head that even seeing where you should step next is almost impossible. Up to this point all who approach you, other than your mother, either shout at you or spit in your face. As Veronica approaches, she walks differently than the others. As she reaches out her hands and wipes your face with her cloth, suddenly her face of compassion becomes clear. No words are necessary, both your eyes say it all. For in that moment, your dignity as a man is restored.

Pause

How many times have I forgotten that each person is made in your image and likeness and therefore deserves my respect? Veronica courageously stepped forward and dared to treat you differently than everyone else. Could I do the same for others?

Pause

Jesus, help me to see your presence in others. Give me the courage to follow Veronica's example of treating others with love even when no one else does.

Seventh Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS FALLS THE SECOND TIME

Seventh Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS FALLS THE SECOND TIME

The soldiers are enraged at you for falling this time. They can't understand how Simon's help is not enough. In their anger they hit you again and again before they remember that you have to be alive to be crucified. The beating stops, but the shouts and taunts become louder and harsher. At this moment you can stop this! You are the Messiah and have the power to reveal yourself to everyone there. But you know that it would not fulfill all that is written about you. You know that you must be faithful to all of the Father's promises to His people. Remembering your love and your faithfulness you get up, and you keep going.

Pause

How many times have I failed to follow through on my promises?
Or worse yet, how often have I lied even to people I care about?
Do I remember your faithfulness even when I fail?

Pause

Jesus, help me to believe in your faithfulness and love for me. Give me the grace to follow through on my word to others. Help me to be a person of integrity.

Eighth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS SPEAKS TO THE WOMEN

Eighth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS SPEAKS TO THE WOMEN

Their wailing sounds like a funeral. They cry and weep as if you are already dead. While air still passes through your lungs and your heart still beats, to them, you are dead. They know you are on your way to be crucified and because of the beating you have endured you already look like you should not be breathing at all. Yet in this moment consumed by death, you speak words of life and say, 'Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me.'

Pause

Do I listen to your words in my life? How often have the things I've watched or listened to led me away from you? Have I allowed the gospel of Life to reign in my heart?

Pause

Jesus, help me to listen to your words of life.
Show me ways that I can put you first.

Ninth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS FALLS THE THIRD TIME

Ninth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS FALLS THE THIRD TIME

Again you fall, this time from sheer exhaustion. Only your will presses you forward while your body refuses. How difficult it must be to be you, fully God and fully man. God knows that this has to be finished and that it is not yet complete. Man feels the excruciating pain and every bone in your body wants to stop right here and move no further. Somehow both join together and you muster the strength to get up. You vow to not fall again because now you can see the place they are leading you to. You know the end is close and so you press on.

Pause

How many times have I let my flesh win over my spirit? How often have I chosen to sin rather than to follow your way? Was it my sin that became too heavy that you fell this third time?

Pause

Jesus, help me to follow your ways.
Help me remember your victory over my sin. Give me the grace to recognize when I sin and the desire to sin no more.

Tenth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS STRIPPED OF HIS GARMENTS

Tenth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS STRIPPED OF HIS GARMENTS

In some ways to get to this point is a relief because you know this is almost over. In other ways it is terrifying because you know the worst pain possible for man to endure is still waiting for you. You are stripped of your dignity as a man, for even animals are given a swifter, less painful death.

Pause

How often have I judged others by the way they look or what they are wearing? Do I find my own self-worth and self-identity by the clothes I wear or the way I look?

Pause

Jesus, help me to look past the outside of others.
Help me not to judge them by how they look or what they wear.
Help me to find my self worth and identity in you.

Eleventh Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS NAILED TO THE CROSS

Eleventh Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS NAILED TO THE CROSS

Lying down on wood is not foreign to you. The first place you were laid when you came into this world was a wooden manger. There you were laid in love and now it is out of love that you lay here on this wooden cross. The soldiers pull your right arm out beside you and then horrific pain flows through your entire body. The nail pierces not only your hand but also your whole body. Again the nail is driven into your other hand and the pain jolts your entire body. Pain shoots up your legs as they nail your feet.

Pause

In reflection, I am angered by the soldiers. I can't understand why they are doing this to you. The cruelty I see in the news and in my community can make me feel sad and confused. How can some people be so mean? Why doesn't God do something? Then I remember he did; he made me. What can I do to show God that I am thankful for the pain Jesus went through on the cross? What can I do to show others that the world doesn't need to be a place of cruelty and unkindness?

Pause

Jesus, Lord, may I never forget that with each kind word and merciful act, I help to create a culture of love, that counteracts a culture of hate.
Remind me that my love makes a difference.

Twelfth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

Twelfth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

Above your head is the inscription, 'King of the Jews'. As you use every last ounce of life left in you to lift your body so that you can speak, you do not look like a King. Yet, every word out of your mouth is one of love, truly from another kingdom. The faces of all humanity must flash before your eyes as one by one you recount who you are doing this for. And finally you say, 'Father, into your hands I commend my spirit...it is finished.' You breathe your last and it looks as though this is the end.

Long Pause

Jesus, help me to never forget your love for me.

Help me to know that you died for me.

Help me to stay faithful in the darkest of times.

When others lose hope, give me the grace to help them find it.

Thirteenth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS TAKEN FROM THE CROSS

Thirteenth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS TAKEN FROM THE CROSS

The first arms that held you in this world are also the last. Your mother was told that one day a sword would pierce her heart. She was told this the day she presented you as an infant to the Father. Now, as she holds your body that is mangled beyond recognition, she sees not only the man she now holds, but also the child she held and her heart is pierced. Your comfort to her will come but in this moment she has only the Father to be with her in her sorrow and pain. All hope seems gone.

Pause

How many times have I lost hope in you? How often have I doubted your ability to be God in my life over all things?

Pause

Jesus, help me to trust in you.
Help me to place all of my hope in you and give me peace in knowing that you are Lord over all things.

Fourteenth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS PLACED IN THE TOMB

Fourteenth Station

"We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you,
because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world."

JESUS IS PLACED IN THE TOMB

You are laid to rest by Joseph of Arimethea, Mary Magdalene, Mary your mother and a few other women. As your body is anointed, Mary Magdalene remembers your eyes penetrating her heart. Tears stream down her face along with the others there as they too remember your love. They wrap your body in clean linens and lay it in a new tomb. The stone is rolled over the entrance and now it surely is the end. Up to this point, death is final. While those you have lived with, laughed with and cried with are in their heightened sorrow believing all is over, you are conquering sin and death.

Pause

How many times has death felt like the end? When I've lost a loved one it can be so hard to remember your victory. How often do I miss the opportunities to say, 'I love you' to those special people in my life? Do my family and friends know how I feel about them?

Pause

Jesus, help me always remember that death is not the end.
Give me the strength to say the words, 'I love you' to those people in my life that I do love. Help me to love every person not just in words but also with my actions.

Jesus, I love you, I need you, and I trust you.
