Dear Parents/Carers

Newsletter No. 2 – 18th September 2020

Open Evening

Our annual Open Evening will go live on Thursday 1st October 2020. Due to restrictions in response to Covid-19, our event this year will be virtual. The presentation will be accessed at 6pm by following the link on the school's website.

School Buses

Please could you remind your sons/daughters to be thoughtful towards the safety of others and to wear a mask/face covering on the school bus.

Feast Day

Friday 25th is the Feast Day of St. Vincent de Paul. All Vincent forms will receive collective workshop from our Chaplain, and pupils will get their customary treat!

Ordering School Lunches

Please note that we would like to receive orders for lunches for the following week by the end of the day on Thursday, of the previous week. If this is not possible, orders can be placed the night before the date of collection. If your child is off sick but has already placed an order for that day, please inform the office of this when you report your child's absence. Please do not send cheques or cash to school. Please pay by ParentMail or ParentPay.

Instrumental Music Lessons at All Hallows

Music lessons for Years 8 - 11 resume next week (21st September). If your child is in Year 7 and enrolled for lessons during the summer, their lessons will also commence. All lessons delivered by peripatetic teachers will comply with the school's current health and safety risk assessment. If your Year 7 child would like to start music lessons but hasn't yet registered, please enrol via the Lancashire Music Service website by the 4th October.

Visit: www.lmsenrol.co.uk These lessons will begin after half-term.

Yours sincerely
