Dear Parents/Carers,

I am delighted to inform you that we have received an outstanding Ofsted report. This rating is a testament to the dedication and hard work of our staff, pupils, and the wider school community.

We are extremely proud of this achievement, especially considering the scarcity of schools nationally that have achieved this grading.

During the inspection process, the pupils' conduct and efforts were exemplary. They were commended by the inspectors for their enthusiasm, commitment, and exemplary behaviour. In particular, Ofsted noted that 'pupils are the strongest advocates of their happy and successful community,' which is reflective of the positive and supportive environment that we have fostered at All Hallows.

“Pupils display mature attitudes. They aspire to achieve highly. They take interest and pride in their own learning.”

“Leaders and teachers are relentlessly ambitious for all pupils.”

We are extremely grateful for the support of parents and carers, as well as the wider community, in helping us achieve this grade. It is a collective effort, and we are proud to have achieved such a significant milestone together.

The Ofsted report has highlighted our school's strengths, including the quality of teaching, the high expectations we have for our pupils, and the excellent provision for the most vulnerable pupils. We will continue to build on these strengths to ensure that our pupils receive the very best education possible.

Finally, I would like to extend my thanks to our staff, pupils, governors and parents for their hard work, dedication, and commitment to our school. Together, we have created a happy and successful Catholic community where our pupils can thrive and achieve their full potential.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Alison Cooper
